PERRY HIGH SCHOOL

Perry, Ohio
Volume XXIII

Dave Coppock

DEDICATION

We Dedicate...

You, Mr. Coppock, have won our admiration and respect by your patience, understanding, cheerfulness, and kindness. Your small tasks and favors are as fully appreciated as the important daily jobs you perform as head custodian of Perry High School.

With our sincerest thanks and appreciation the Senior Class of 1961 dedicates to you, Mr. Dave Coppock, this issue of the Treasure Chest.

Uncle Dave's favorite hobby is photographing models, but in this instance the role is reversed and he plays model instead.

A familiar sight to many is the morning ritual of the flag raising.

Hunting is another of Dave's hobbies.

There is an increasing need in our growing community for more and larger classrooms. In July, the groundbreaking ceremony for the construction of the new Manchester Avenue Elementary School was held, and we expect the building to be in operation during the 1961-62 school year. We hope that the friendly spirit and atmosphere of fellowship and school life, characteristic of Perry Schools, will prevail in this new addition.

Executive Head

Sound judgement and wisdom through experience as an educator and administrator are the qualities which make Alvin Elliott, Superintendent of Perry Schools, a progressive leader.

He is presently administering a new building program, geared to keep pace with the rapidly increasing student enrollment in our growing community.

Board of Education

Richard P. West, Charles E. Poulson, Chas. C. Dugan, Robert W. Plummer, Vaughn Johnson.

Principal

The difficult job of making a school day move smoothly is that of our principal, Mr. Ballinger. His duties run the gamut from talking to individual pupils to addressing the entire student body in assemblies.

He is more closely associated with all of the high school students at Perry than any other member of faculty or administration.

Victory, Victory, Victory

The cheerleaders exhaust their voices, talents, and energy yelling long and loud in support of our teams. They also keep busy as beavers preparing for games; they display new and novel posters in the halls proclaiming Fight! Win! and plan pep assemblies and skits to boost school spirit.

They usually take part in the P.T.A. Carnivals and last year they attended summer camp.

Competition for the coveted positions is very spirited and many girls practice for weeks before the tryouts. The training doesn't stop once they are chosen, however. Nearly every afternoon after school the gymnasium rings as they practice cheers and synchronization and yell FIGHT, TEAM, FIGHT!

PIRATES HAVE EXCITING SEASON

Perry romped over the South Jayvees in its warm-up for Wickliffe. The Pirates had a bigger line than in past seasons and had halfback Hallie Weaver and all-WRL fullback Tim Brainard sparking the running attack.

Then in one of the highest scoring grid battles seen by area fans in some time, the Wickliffe Blue Devils outscored the Perry Pirates 60-28. Brainard gave the crowd its biggest thrill of the evening by running 95 yards for a touchdown.

Weaver's and Brainard's running plus the aerial attack lead by quarter back John Goundrey and his receivers, halfback Dan Dent and end Jack Craine, made it a very exciting season.

PERRY SNARES WRL CROWN Ends Ashtabula Reign

Ashtabula County's longtime grip on the Western Reserve League track crown came to an abrupt end Friday afternoon as a solid Perry Pirate squad ran away from the field at Wenner Field in Ashtabula.

The Pirates, the first Lake County squad to win the meet since Harbor and Edgewood joined the league in 1955, finished far ahead of the runner-up Madison with 68 1-5 points.

Homecoming Queen

The football field was suddenly darkened and the crowd grew silent with expectation. When the bright lights were flicked on again, Pat Padula reigned as Queen of the Homecoming, October 7, 1960. Saturday night the dance was held in the Perry gymnasium.

Jack Craine, Pat Padula

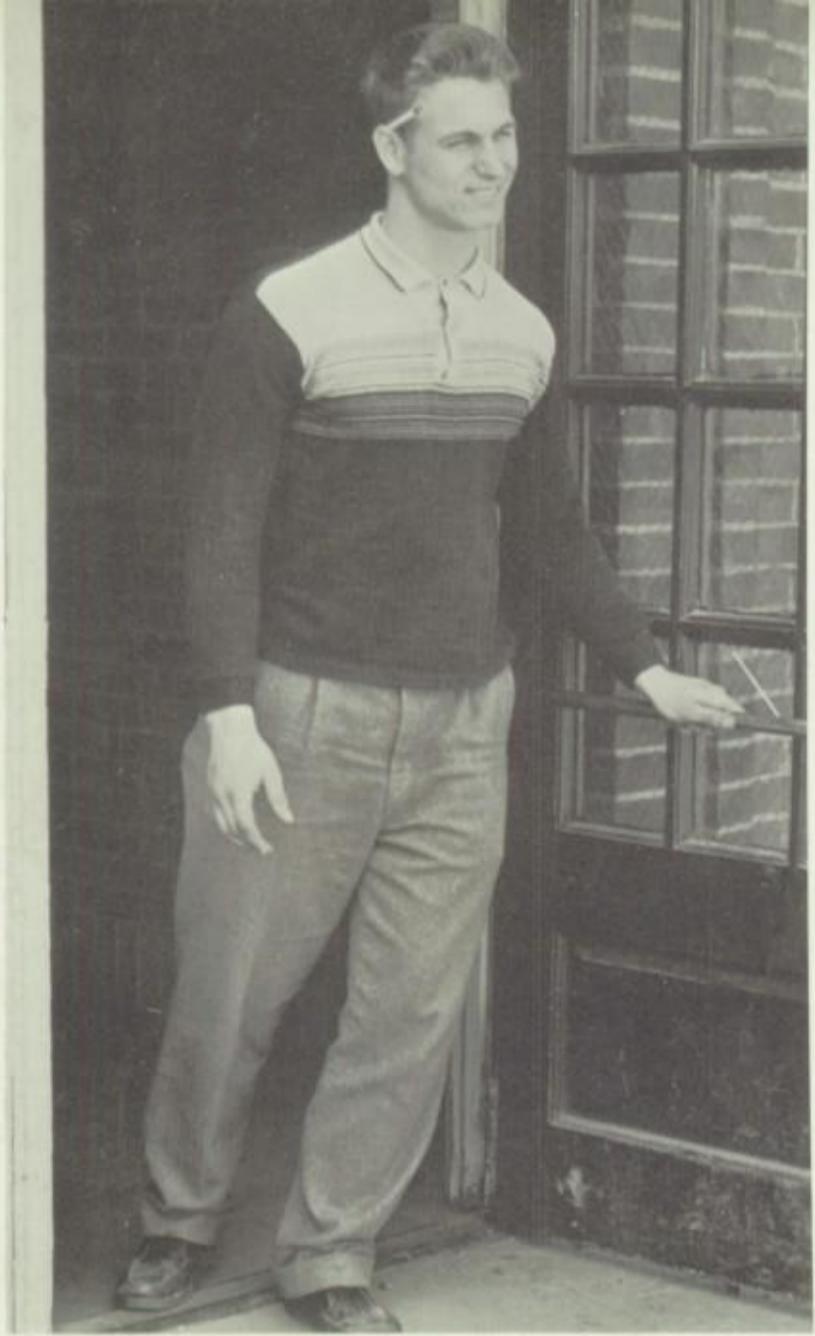

Jim Rogers, Carole Compton

Mike Korb, Gail Chereson

The attendants, and Janet Lynn, Queen of 1959, were escorted to the dance to take part in the festivities. Pat was crowned and the traditional kiss was bestowed upon her by Tim Brainard, captain of the football team. The ceremony was ended as Pat and Jack Craine led the Queen's Waltz.

BELL, BOOK AND CANDLE

Pyewacket, what's the matter with me, why do I feel this way?

The age of witchcraft is not past if we are to believe the Junior Class Presentation of BELL, BOOK, AND CANDLE. The story deals with a glamorous witch and her helpless, but delighted victim.

I want to be sure it's the real thing this time.

No listen, don't get mad. I haven't done anything.

Soft breezes and warm balmy weather transported the Madison Country Club and its one hundred fifty guests to a tropical South Sea island for the Junior-Senior Prom.

After the luau, dance music was furnished by the Jerry Dean Trio. A photographer was on hand to snap the happy couples in the lovely scene shown at the left.

The annual staff and the Class of '61 would like to express their thanks to all of those who have made this school year enjoyable. The class gives its thanks to all their homeroom teachers, who have put up with so much and to Mr. Cooper for his counseling. Also, the annual staff would like to thank the advisors for the help they have given to this year's Treasure Chest.
